

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; specifying requirements applicable to certain public trusts; specifying when certain provisions applicable; recognizing certain authority of board of county commissioners; construing language; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.