

An Act relating to schools; exempting certain schools maintained in state reformatories from certain provisions relating to class size limitations; prohibiting State Board of Education from assessing certain penalties or sanctions on certain schools; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.