

An Act relating to motor vehicles; defining term; requiring certain public safety agencies to record accidents where a mobile telephone was in use at the time of the accident; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.