

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; requiring state income tax return forms to contain certain provisions; providing for donations from income tax refunds for support of common schools, road and highway maintenance and the Medicaid program; providing for deposit of certain monies; creating certain revolving funds and providing for expenditures therefrom; providing procedures if taxpayer makes donation in error; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.