

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; creating certain safety zone against certain offenders on certain property; stating distance for safety zone property; providing penalties for violation; excepting certain offenders from safety zone for certain purpose; construing certain provision; providing exception to prosecution as habitual offender; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.