

An Act relating to schools; stating employee's right of choice of representation in grievance matters; prohibiting term in collective bargaining agreement that restricts representation of employee; requires employee agreement to forward certain grievances to certain organization; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.