

An Act relating to schools; prohibiting school districts from granting paid leave to certain employee representatives; requiring salary reduction to cover cost of providing substitute teacher under certain circumstances; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.