

An Act relating to public health and safety; creating the Affordable Access to Health Care Act; providing short title; stating purpose; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.