

An Act relating to public health and safety; making it unlawful to provide certain false information on specified application; requiring certain statement to be included on uniform employment application; providing for penalty; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.