

An Act relating to higher education; requiring certain vaccinations for enrollment in certain postsecondary educational institutions; requiring certain documentation; authorizing completion of vaccinations within certain timeframe; exempting students enrolled in certain classes; requiring certain institutions to provide certain notice and educational information; specifying institution not liable for certain payments; providing certain exceptions; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.