

An Act relating to public health and safety; limiting specified payments; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.