

An Act relating to schools; requiring inclusion of certain information related to salary and benefits in contracts for certain certified personnel; requiring school districts to furnish statement of certain salary and benefits paid to certain employees; requiring school districts to include in certain annual personnel report certain information related to salary and benefits paid; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.