

An Act relating to elections; providing for gubernatorial appointment and Senate confirmation of certain judges in certain counties; providing for retention ballots for election of certain judges; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.