

An Act relating to higher education; requiring certain students be vaccinated against certain disease; providing for exemption; requiring provision of information; requiring consultation with State Department of Health on waiver and informational materials; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.