

An Act relating to retirement; exempting membership for certain members of the Oklahoma Law Enforcement Retirement System; allowing certain directors to make an election; providing for treatment of retirement status upon making election; restating limitation on certain benefits; preventing future service credit accumulation for certain members; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.