

An Act relating to schools; authorizing State Board of Education to grant exception to certain requirements for native foreign language speakers; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.