

A Resolution memorializing Congress to reform the current class action lawsuit process in order to ensure fair legal process for class members with legitimate claims, protect responsible companies and other institutions against frivolous interstate class actions in state courts, and provide for federal court consideration of interstate class actions; and directing distribution.