REMARKS OF SPEAKER ADAIR

Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Chairman, members of the House, distinguished guests, family and friends!

I didn't think it was possible to top the experience two years ago when I was elected Speaker of this distinguished body. However, it is perhaps an even greater honor today to accept the trust you have placed in me and the responsibility that I will now take as your leader for the next two years. I consider today as a reflection of the exemplary performance of the House of Representatives over the past two years in the conduct of the people's business.

I want to thank Representatives Larry Rice, Kevin Cox and Jari Askins for their kind and generous comments on my behalf. One of my goals during the coming session will be to govern this House of Representatives according to the challenges each of you have set forth and the comments you have made.

I would like to introduce my family. My wife, Jan. A very special lady in my life, Mom, Louise Adair. Also, a very special person, my right hand, my brother, Joe Adair.

Members, let me take a moment to recall what I pledged at this podium two years ago. I promised that I would strive as Speaker to make inclusion one of my priorities as your leader. My vision was to minimize considerations of party, geography, gender, and ethnicity as considerations as we sought solutions to the issues that confronted the state over the past two years.

To that end, an overwhelming majority of vice chairs of standing committees were Republicans, and a subcommittee of the redistricting committee was chaired by a member of the Republican party. My commitment to work with members of both parties remains today. For the Forty-ninth Legislature, twenty-one standing committee vice chairs and the chair of the standing Committee on Retirement Laws, Larry Ferguson, have been awarded to members of the minority party.

In making plans for the session, the Republican leader of the House, Representative

Todd Hiatt, and I have gotten off to a great start. It is my hope that we can build on that relationship over the next two years as we face the challenges before this great state.

Inclusion is much more than a party issue. The Forty-ninth Legislature will be an historic one if for no other reason than it is the last one before term limits occur. Look around. There are twenty-eight current members of this body, including me, whose legislative eligibility will expire after the 2004 session. That represents a great deal of knowledge and expertise.

Part of my job is to help prepare those of you who will remain to assume the responsibility for leading the House of Representatives in the years to come. At one time, new members of the Legislature were expected to take a back seat for their first several terms. That is not the case now. A number of new members will gain valuable experience as committee vice chairs. For the first time in recent history, a new member is a vice chair of one of our Appropriations and Budget Subcommittees. And one new member will serve on my leadership team.

In the book of Ecclesiastes, the Bible tells us that “for everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven.” So it is for this Legislature. Elections are over and the preparations for the 2003 session are nearly complete as well. For over a year, the state has had time to face the fact that this state’s finances are insufficient to meet its budget commitments. The fiscal challenges meeting this Legislature are the toughest at least since the mid-1980s.

However, public service and leadership are not only for the good times. The people of Oklahoma elected us to lead the state through the difficult times, as well as the good times.

As we look forward to the centennial of the state in 2007 and enjoy the beauty of our state capitol building with its magnificent new dome, we might also think of the struggles of those who attempted to build a new life out of the wilderness in Oklahoma. For many of our forebearers who helped settle Oklahoma, life has always been a series of challenges - and in some cases crises - which had to be overcome.

For those early settlers, sustaining life was a frequent challenge that had to be faced. It seems only appropriate today to recall the words which continue to echo over the centuries of the American patriot Thomas Paine who wrote during the crisis year of 1776 as the Continental Congress and General George Washington faced potential defeat: “These are the times that try men’s souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands it now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman.”

Over the next five months and beyond, we will make many difficult decisions affecting the people of our state. As we do, I urge that we consider these words of former Vice President Hubert Humphrey in one of his last speeches delivered on the floor of the United States Senate: “The moral test of government is how that government treats those who are in the dawn of life, the children; those who are in the twilight of life, the elderly; and those who are in the shadows of life—the sick, the needy, and the handicapped.”

So my friends, my challenge to you is that we keep all of these people in mind as we go about our work in the coming days.

I will end my comments by extending my best wishes to Governor and Mrs. Frank Keating who next week end eight years in the office of Governor for this great state. I look forward to working with Governor-elect Brad Henry and his administration. I also look forward to working with my former House colleague, Senator Cal Hobson, as he assumes the leadership of the State Senate. And last, but not least, I pledge to work with all of you in the coming days of the Forty-ninth Legislature.

I know that we are ready to get on with the business at hand. I pledge to you that I will do my best to assist you, to be accessible when I'm needed, and to make the next two years the most productive Legislature possible!

Speaker Adair Presiding

Representative Graves nominated Representative Davis for Speaker Pro Tempore of the House, which motion was seconded by Representative Worthen.

Representative Boren moved that nominations for Speaker Pro Tempore cease, which motion was declared adopted.

Speaker Adair put the question: "Shall Representative Hilliard or Representative Davis be elected Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives for the Forty-ninth Legislature?"

The roll was ordered called and resulted as follows:

Excused: Hastings, Nance, Phillips.—3.

Speaker Adair declared Representative Hilliard elected Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives for the Forty-ninth Legislature and appointed Representatives Toure, Staggs and Carey to escort Speaker Pro Tempore-elect Hilliard to the rostrum where he was administered his Oath of Office by Associate District Judge Timothy Colbert.

(c) If the majority report is such as to reject the bill or joint resolution and the minority report is such as to accept the bill or joint resolution, the question shall be in the following form: "Shall the Minority Report be substituted for the Majority Report?" and the Presiding Officer, upon the request of any member, shall explain the effect of the adoption of the motion. If such motion prevails, the bill or joint resolution shall have the same status as if returned and accepted from committee with a recommendation that it "Do Pass", as provided in Rule 10, Section 4(a).

VOTING AND QUORUM

Section 1: Voting and Division.

(a) The electronic voting machine shall be used to record the vote whenever the ayes and nays are required or ordered. The machine shall also be used to determine the presence of a quorum, or to determine the numerical count where a division is requested. In the event the machine is not operating properly, all votes and determinations of quorums may be taken by calling the roll. If a member's voting device is out of order, the member shall rise and so announce to the Presiding Officer and cast said member's vote orally prior to the declaration of the result of the vote. Every member shall vote providing the member is in the Chamber at the time the vote is in progress.

(b) The electronic voting machine shall be under the control of the Presiding Officer and shall be operated by such Clerk as the Presiding Officer so designates. At a reasonable time prior to any vote being taken, the Presiding Officer shall announce that a vote is about to be taken. When any member other than the Speaker is presiding, the member shall direct another member to activate the roll call switch at said member's desk in the manner requested by that member. When the Speaker is not presiding, the Speaker may direct another member to activate the Speaker's roll call switch in the manner requested by the Speaker. Any member who is present in the Chamber or is within the view of the Presiding Officer while a vote is in progress may direct another member to activate said member's roll call switch in the manner requested by that member.

(c) Each recorded vote for final passage will be held open for at least two (2) minutes or a shorter time if the Presiding Officer determines that all members recorded as being present have voted.

(d) When sufficient time has elapsed for each member to vote, the Presiding Officer shall ask if any members present desire to vote or change their vote. Following such inquiry and before the electronic voting machine is locked, any member may be excused from voting, pursuant to the provisions of Article V, Section 24, of the Oklahoma Constitution.

(e) The Presiding Officer shall then lock the machine and instruct the Clerk to record the vote. The Clerk shall immediately activate the recording equipment and when the vote is completely recorded, shall advise the Presiding Officer of the result, and the Presiding Officer shall announce the result to the House. No vote may be changed after it has been recorded.

(f) No member may vote for another member, nor may any person cast a vote for a member, except as otherwise provided in this rule. A member who votes for another member, except as herein provided, may be punished in a manner the House determines. A person voting for a member, when not authorized by this Rule, shall be barred from the Chamber and may be further punished as the House considers proper.

(g) When a division is requested and ordered, those in the affirmative or the negative, as the case may be, shall cast their votes accordingly and the Clerk shall activate the electronic voting machine so as to reflect the individual ayes and nays and the numerical count, but no permanent record thereof shall be made. When the vote is completed, the Clerk shall advise the Presiding Officer of the result, and the Presiding Officer shall announce the result to the House. In the event the machine is not operating properly, those in the affirmative shall arise from their seats and stand until they are counted aloud by the Clerk, then those voting in the negative shall arise and stand until they are counted, and the Presiding Officer shall announce the result.

(h) One-fifteenth (1/15) of the members present, a quorum being present, may demand a recorded vote on any proposition, or the Presiding Officer may order a recorded vote upon the Presiding Officer's own initiative. All such recorded votes shall be printed in the House Journal.

(i) After the question has been put, but before the vote commences, any member may call for a statement of the question.

(b) Whenever it shall be ascertained that a quorum is not present, the members present may, by motion adopted by a majority of those voting, direct the Chief Sergeant at Arms to request and, if necessary, to compel the presence of absent members, which motion shall be considered without debate. Any such member or members requesting the investigation shall not serve as chair of the committee.

RULE 17 CALL OF THE HOUSE

Call of the House may be moved at any time by any member, but must be seconded by fifteen (15) members. If such motion prevails, the business pending shall be suspended, the roll shall be taken, and the names of the absentees ascertained. The Chief Sergeant at Arms shall then be directed by the Presiding Officer to compel the attendance of the absent members. After one (1) hour has expired, the roll shall again be taken and absent members noted in the Journal, and the business suspended upon the roll call shall proceed. If, however, before the expiration of the hour, all absent members, not otherwise excused, shall appear, the business pending shall then proceed. If a Call of the House be ordered, a motion to "work under the Call of the House" shall be in order, and if adopted, the House shall proceed with any other business at hand except that interrupted by a Call of the House.

The Speaker, seconded by five (5) members, may move a Call of the House and send for absent members, provided there be not a quorum present. The motion to reconsider a final vote shall not be presented or considered on the same day that such final vote was taken, except by suspension of this Rule, or as provided in subsection (d) or (e) of this Rule. Only one (1) reconsideration of the final vote on a bill, resolution, or Emergency Section shall be allowed.

(b) For adoption, a motion to reconsider the final vote on a bill, resolution, or Emergency Section must receive a majority of those elected to and constituting the House; provided, however, if such motion to reconsider is not presented and considered within three (3) legislative days after the day on which notice is served, the motion to reconsider shall be considered as having failed of adoption.

(c) Except for the last day of the reconsideration period, the motion to reconsider may be presented only by the member who served notice, or by another member with said member's consent. On the last day of the reconsideration period, any member may present such motion for consideration.
