

Public contracts; expanding certain exemptions to contract restrictions with certain public officers and members of boards of education; emergency.