

Marriage and family; providing that child support benefits are to be for support of child; prohibiting any portion of child support to be held, seized, taken, subjected to or detained or levied by any process or proceeding for payment of attorney fees; codification; effective date.