

State government; allowing employer to cease participation in state plan and provide coverage through another carrier; emergency.