

Health insurance; participation in state-offered plans; allowing certain persons and entities to participate; removing certain level of participation; duplicate section; emergency.