

Schools; directing the State Department of Education to develop a standardized form for recording and reporting certain information; emergency.