Supp. 2004, Section 2817.1), which relate to the Ad Valorem Tax Code; modifying certain definitions; adding certain definition; clarifying fair cash value; modifying assessment roll availability; specifying method of making assessment roll adjustments; modifying the calculation of certain interest; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 11 O.S. 2001, Section 42-107, is amended to read as follows:

Section 42-107. Any decree or written instrument vacating a plat or portion thereof shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk in the county where the land is situated and shall include a metes and bounds legal description of the area being vacated and a separate metes and bounds legal description of the area, if any, remaining platted. The clerk shall write in plain, legible letters across that part of the plat so vacated the word "Vacated". The county clerk shall provide a copy of the metes and bounds legal description of the property being vacated as furnished by the petitioner to the county assessor. The clerk shall also note on the original plat a reference to the decree or instrument and the volume and page where recorded.

SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 51 O.S. 2001, Section 24A.7, is amended to read as follows:

Section 24A.7 A. A public body may keep personnel records confidential:

1. Which relate to internal personnel investigations including examination and selection material for employment, hiring, appointment, promotion, demotion, discipline, or resignation; or

2. Where disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy such as employee evaluations, payroll deductions, employment applications submitted by persons not hired by the public body, and transcripts from institutions of higher education maintained in the personnel files of certified public school employees; provided, however, that nothing in this subsection shall be construed to exempt from disclosure the degree obtained and the curriculum on the transcripts of certified public school employees.

B. All personnel records not specifically falling within the exceptions provided in subsection A of this section shall be available for public inspection and copying including, but not limited to, records of:

1. An employment application of a person who becomes a public official;
2. The gross receipts of public funds;
3. The dates of employment, title or position; and
4. Any final disciplinary action resulting in loss of pay, suspension, demotion of position, or termination.

C. Except as may otherwise be made confidential by statute, an employee of a public body shall have a right of access to his own personnel file.

D. Public bodies shall keep confidential the home address, telephone numbers and social security numbers of any person employed or formerly employed by the public body.

SECTION 3. AMENDATORY 68 O.S. 2001, Section 2802, is amended to read as follows:

Section 2802. As used in Section 2801 et seq. of this title:

1. "Accepted standards for mass appraisal practice" means those standards for the collection and analysis of information about taxable properties within a taxing jurisdiction permitting the accurate estimate of fair cash value for similar properties in the jurisdiction either without direct observation of such similar properties or without direct sales price information for such similar properties using a reliable statistical or other method to estimate the values of such properties;

2. "Additional homestead exemption" means the exemption provided by Section 2890 of this title;

3. "Assessor" means the county assessor and, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, deputy assessors and persons employed by the county assessor in performance of duties imposed by law;

~~30.~~ 31. "Visual inspection program" means the program required in order to gather data about real property from physical examination of the property and improvements in order to establish the fair cash values of properties so inspected at least once each four (4) years and the fair cash values of similar properties on an annual basis.

SECTION 4. AMENDATORY 68 O.S. 2001, Section 2817.1, as amended by Section 8, Chapter 344, O.S.L. 2002 (68 O.S. Supp. 2004, Section 2817.1), is amended to read as follows:

Section 2817.1 A. For purposes of implementing Section 8B of Article X of the Oklahoma Constitution, the taxable fair cash value of locally assessed real property shall not be automatically increased five percent (5%) each year, the five-percent limitation on the increase in the taxable fair cash value shall not be cumulative, and the five-percent limitation shall not be considered as a twenty-percent increase every four (4) years.

B. For purposes of implementing Section 8B of Article X of the Oklahoma Constitution, improvements made to locally assessed real property shall be assessed in accordance with law by the county assessor based on the fair cash value of the improvement. The assessed value of the improvement shall then be added to the existing assessed value of the property, except as otherwise provided in the Oklahoma Housing Reinvestment Program Act. The existing property shall continue to be subject to the five-percent limitation on the increase in valuation as set forth in Section 8B of Article X of the Oklahoma Constitution. Except when title to the property is transferred, changed, or conveyed to another person as defined in Section 2802.1 of this title, and in accordance with Legislative intent as set forth in subsection A of this section, under no circumstances shall the taxable fair cash value of the existing property increase by more than five percent (5%) in any taxable year.

SECTION 5. AMENDATORY 68 O.S. 2001, Section 2842, is amended to read as follows:

Section 2842. A. Each county assessor in the state shall annually prepare an assessment roll, which shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Oklahoma Tax Commission and shall contain the following:

1. A list of all lands in the county in numerical order beginning with the lowest numbered section, in the lowest numbered township in the lowest numbered range in the county, and ending in the highest numbered section, township and range, with the number of acres in each tract, and the numbers of the school districts in which such lands are located, and the name and address of the owner in each instance excepting unplatted lands located inside a city or town;

2. A list of town lots in each town or city in like numerical order and the unplatted lands located inside each city and town, in numerical order beginning with the lowest numbered section in the lowest numbered township and range with the number of acres in each tract, and the number of the school district in which such lots or tracts are located, and the name and address of the owner in each instance;

3. A list in alphabetical order of all persons and bodies corporate in whose names any personal property has been assessed, the address of each such taxpayer, the number of the school district in which such property is taxable, with a sufficient number of columns opposite each name to enter the value, and where practicable the number of the several classes of property assessed to each property owner;

4. The value fixed by the county assessor of all property; and additional columns to show the equalized value as fixed by the State Board of Equalization. In listing real estate the value of land and improvements shall be shown separately in each instance; provided, in those counties in this state which have approved an exemption of household goods of the heads of families and livestock employed in support of the family from ad valorem taxation pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of Section 6 of Article X of the Oklahoma Constitution, the county assessor may, in preparation of the assessment roll, combine the value of land and improvements thereon; and

5. Such other information as may be required by the Tax Commission. Each property in which there is a homestead interest shall be entered on a separate line, and the assessment roll shall show the total assessed valuation of each homestead, the amount of exemption allowed, and the assessed valuation less the exemption.

B. ~~The assessment roll shall be correctly balanced and it shall be the mandatory duty of the county assessor as outlined under the penalties of Section 2943 of this title to deliver the completed roll available electronically to the county board of equalization on or before the fourth Monday in April of each year while the board is in session,~~ in order that the board may correct and adjust the taxable value of the property of the county. If there should be any lawful adjustments necessary, the board shall inform the county assessor in writing on a form prescribed by the Oklahoma Tax Commission.

C. Prior to November 1 each year, the county assessor shall submit on a form prepared by the Tax Commission a report to the Tax Commission which states the net assessed valuation and millage levy of each political subdivision or taxing authority of the state that is authorized to levy a property tax regardless of whether such property tax is actually levied.

SECTION 6. AMENDATORY 68 O.S. 2001, Section 2844, is amended to read as follows:

Section 2844. A. If any real, personal, railroad, air carrier or public service corporation property is omitted in the assessment of any prior year or years, and the property thereby escapes just and proper taxation, at any time and as soon as such omission is discovered, the county assessor or the county board of equalization, or the State Board of Equalization in the case of public service corporation property or railroad and air carrier property, whose duty it is to assess the class of property which has been omitted, shall at any time cause such property to be entered on the assessment rolls and tax rolls for the year or years omitted, not to exceed the last fifteen (15) years as to real property and the last three (3) years as to personal property, and shall, after reasonable notice to the parties affected, in order that they be heard, assess such omitted property for said periods and cause to be extended against the same on the tax rolls for the current year all arrearage of taxes properly accruing against it, including therein interest ~~thereon~~ at the lawful rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum as set forth in Section 2913 of this title, calculated from the time such tax should have become delinquent.

B. If any tax on property subject to taxation is prevented from being collected for any year or years by reason of any erroneous proceedings, or failure to give notice, or otherwise, the amount of such tax which such property should have paid or should have been paid thereon shall be added to the tax on such property for the current year, and if for want of sufficient time or for any cause such assessment cannot be entered, and the tax thereon extended on the tax rolls for the current year, the same shall be done the following year.

SECTION 7. This act shall become effective November 1, 2005.
