A Resolution commending Robert E. Lee Elementary School for winning a 2005 "Excellence in Mathematics" designation; encouraging the school to continue its quest for excellence; and directing distribution.

WHEREAS, Robert E. Lee Elementary School (where kids come first!) is a pre-K through fourth grade elementary school within the Durant Public School District in southeastern Oklahoma. The school has an approximate enrollment of 225 students with 39 persons on staff. In an attempt to stay at the front in leading education, Robert E. Lee Elementary School has broadened its horizons to include the globe through the accessibility of the Internet; and

WHEREAS, Robert E. Lee Elementary School, part of the Durant Public School System, has won a 2005 "Excellence in Mathematics" designation from the Oklahoma State Department of Education; and

WHEREAS, Robert E. Lee Elementary School can boast a number of famous and distinguished graduates and is a key component of Durant Public Schools and one of the reasons that Durant Public Schools can say "There's No Better Place To Learn".

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE 1ST SESSION OF THE 50TH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate commends Robert E. Lee Elementary School for winning a 2005 "Excellence in Mathematics" designation from the Oklahoma State Department of Education.

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate encourages Robert E. Lee Elementary School to continue its quest for excellence in mathematics and other subjects.

THAT a copy of this resolution be distributed to Robert E. Lee Elementary School Principal Mike Dills.

Adopted by the Senate the 11th day of May, 2005.
