

An Act relating to the Office of the Attorney General; requiring budgeting of funds in certain categories and amounts; providing for duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.