

An Act relating to roads, bridges and ferries; requiring the Department of Transportation to request certain study; requiring copies of results of study be submitted to certain persons; and providing for codification.