

An Act relating to state government; requiring state agencies to consider certain factors when deciding to purchase or lease real property for certain purposes; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.