

An Act relating to workers' compensation; requiring certain reports be confidential for certain period of time; stating exceptions; providing punishment; prohibiting certain examination of specific record; authorizing certain oath; providing penalty for certain act; defining term; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.