

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; authorizing income tax credit for cash donations to certain qualified charitable conservation organizations; defining term; imposing maximum amount of credits claimable per fiscal year; prescribing procedures related to use of credits; limiting use of tax credits with respect to certain liability amount; authorizing carryover; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.