

An Act relating to schools; amending 70 O.S. 2001, Section 1210.229-6, which relates to character education programs; requiring school districts to develop and implement character education programs; clarifying statutory language; directing the State Board of Education to develop and provide certain services through an Internet web site; directing the Board to award certain grants for character education pilot projects; stating purpose of pilot projects; providing for certain costs; directing the Board to establish criteria and a process; directing the Board to promulgate rules; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.