

An Act relating to public finance; enacting the Debt Financing Disclosure Act; defining terms; imposing reporting requirements upon local and state governmental entities with respect to indebtedness; specifying content of reports; requiring filing of information with certain public officials; requiring annual publication of information by Office of State Finance; providing for access to information through the Internet; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.