

An Act relating to public health and safety; enacting the Women's Right to Know Act; providing short title; defining terms; requiring voluntary and informed consent for an abortion; specifying requirements for a voluntary and informed consent; requiring the State Department of Health to publish certain printed materials; requiring development of an Internet website for certain purpose; providing for medical emergencies; requiring the State Department of Health to prepare certain reporting forms; providing procedure for use of report forms; specifying penalties; authorizing actual and punitive damages under certain circumstances; providing for injunctions and attorney fees under certain circumstances; providing procedure for anonymity of certain persons; providing for severability; enacting the Family Protection Act; providing short title; defining terms; prohibiting abortions on certain persons without certain notice; providing procedures related to the notice; specifying penalties; authorizing actual and punitive damages; requiring the State Department of Health to prepare certain reporting form; providing procedure for use of report form; requiring the State Department of Health to issue certain report; providing remedy for failure to issue certain report; providing for severability; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.