

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; authorizing income tax credit for certain employer expenses; providing for credit based upon voluntary employment terminations related to military duty of spouses; defining terms; imposing maximum amount of credit with respect to employee; requiring statement by terminated employee; authorizing forms; authorizing carryover of credit amounts; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.