

An Act relating to insurance; creating the Oklahoma Life Insurance Registry; requiring database to contain certain information; limiting accessibility of database to certain persons; allowing for charge of fee; defining term; providing for promulgation of rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.