

An Act relating to banks and banking; authorizing certain additional powers to state-chartered banks; imposing limitations on powers; requiring State Banking Board to adopt regulations; specifying permissible content of regulations; providing for petition process for grant of additional powers; prescribing procedures; providing for appeals; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.