

An Act relating to schools; directing school districts to increase support employee salaries; making salary increase contingent upon funding; providing conditions of payment; clarifying eligibility of support employees; providing for noncodification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.