

An Act relating to banks and trust companies; exempting bank from certain duties; defining terms; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.