

An Act relating to torts; providing organizations that hold charitable events and members of the organizations immunity from civil liability under certain circumstances; defining terms; providing for application of law to actions filed on or after a certain date; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.