

An Act relating to probate procedure; creating the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act; defining terms; providing certain requirement of survival; requiring certain standard of proof of survival; establishing certain rules relating to determination of death or status; providing exceptions to application of the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act; providing for the protection of payors, bona fide purchasers and other third parties; providing for determination of personal liability of certain recipients; providing obligation in case of preemption by federal law; providing for uniformity of application and construction; providing short title; providing for application of effective date; repealing 58 O.S. 2001, Sections 1001, 1002, 1003, 1004, 1005, 1006, 1007 and 1008, which relate to the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.