

An Act relating to elections; amending 26 O.S. 2001, Section 1-104, which relates to primary elections and runoff primary elections; allowing all registered voters eligible to vote for an office to vote in the primary and runoff primary election of a recognized political party in certain circumstances; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.