

An Act relating to roads, bridges and ferries; directing the Oklahoma Department of Transportation to erect informational signs for historical sites, buildings, or properties at certain locations; specifying location; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.