

An Act relating to fire protection; directing municipal fire departments to identify and temporarily designate certain types of fire hydrants; directing certain county fire departments or districts to identify and temporarily designate certain types of fire hydrants; directing removal of certain fire hydrants; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.