

An Act relating to state government; exempting certain temporary employees of the Department of Environmental Quality from full-time equivalency limitations; limiting temporary full-time equivalency employees to certain percentage of total full-time equivalency employee limit; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.