

An Act relating to poor persons; requiring the Department of Human Services to establish a program to provide prescription drugs to senior citizens; specifying payment requirements; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.