

An Act relating to public health and safety; providing definitions; requiring certain service providers to register with the State Department of Health; requiring the keeping of certain records; providing for penalty; providing exemption; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.