

An Act relating to labor; creating the Alicia Layne Driver Education and Safety Training Act; stating purpose; requiring driver education and safety training programs for certain employees; requiring certification of programs by Department of Public Safety; requiring programs be taught by certain persons; allowing attendance of program to satisfy certain requirement; requiring Department of Labor to promulgate rules for oversight of programs; requiring Department of Labor to compile and maintain statistics; providing for codification; providing for noncodification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.