

An Act relating to class actions; providing requirements and procedures for the uniform disposition of residual class action funds; requiring the names and last-known addresses of unlocated potential class action claimants to be reported to the State Treasurer within certain time; requiring the State Treasurer to publish the names of unlocated potential class action claimants for a certain time in the same manner as those in the Unclaimed Property Fund; providing that disputed claims be interpled into court; providing for the disposition of the residual class action funds within certain time; providing for applicability to certain actions; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.