

An Act relating to public health and safety; creating requirements for prescription drug advertising; defining terms; requiring promulgation of certain rules; providing certain immunity; providing penalty; providing for a fee; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.