

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; creating tax credit for contributions to certain charitable organizations; specifying amount of credit; defining terms; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.